HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM

WRIT PETITION No.9609 of 2006

O R D E R :

The petitioner alleges that despite having a legitimate title to a house property in Karuchola Gram Panchayat in respect of which he was granted a patta and the property is also assessed to property tax, the second respondent is, at the instance of inimical locals, threatening forcible dispossession without due process of law. If such be the case, the petitioner has an effective alternative remedy by way of seeking injunction relief before the Civil Court of competent jurisdiction locally. The petitioner's apprehension that he has to issue a notice under Section 80 of C.P.C. is also misconceived. In emergency situation, a notice could be dispensed with.

For the aforesaid reasons, no case is made out for interference.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
